

Exhibitor UPDATE 2005

Regarding the Academy Annual Meeting March 16-19 in Orlando

The 2005 Academy Annual Meeting in conjunction with ACPOC will give you the opportunity to meet face-to face with new customers and existing buyers – setting the foundation for a long-term buying relationship.

ACPOC will join the Academy in Orlando! What this means to exhibitors is your company's products will be promoted to more than just Orthotists and Prosthetists. ACPOC attracts physician specialists in Pediatric Orthopedics, Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, Physical Therapists, Nurses, and rehabilitation Engineers.

All Academy exhibitors will be given the opportunity to showcase their company's products and service for children at no additional cost. To qualify for this special offer, exhibitors are required to complete a form sent in conjunction with their official booth assignment and return to Cindy DeClark.

Stand Out from the Crowd...Take Advantage of Great Marketing Opportunities! The Academy sends promotional materials to over 10,000 potential attendees, three different times. Select your sponsorship advertisement today so we can include your company's name and/ or logo in our promotional materials. Sign up by the dates listed below to be included in these promotional opportunities:
